Participants please note: Your first point of contact for all questions regarding the European Haflinger Championship is your registering organisation, i.e. in most cases the national member WHBSF organisations (<http://www.haflinger-world.com/members/>).

If necessary, the registering organisation will forward your questions (e.g. regulations for admission, time schedule, judges etc.) to the WHBSF (office@haflinger-world.com).

The registering organisations may direct any question regarding the venue (stables, electricity etc.) which is not explicitly answered in the regulations for admission, the subsequent notifications and information letters or on the website (www.pferde-stadlpaura.at/) to the host at europachampionat18@pferde-stadlpaura.at.

Entries

All entries must be submitted to the host and the WHBSF by the national federation of each country in due time (europachampionat18@pferde-stadlpaura.at and office@haflinger-world.com) and contain the following details:

→ by 30 June 2018: total number of participants

→ by 15 July 2018: a final list of entries stating the total number of participants and their disciplines

Any entry submitted after 15 July 2018 will be subject to a late registration fine amounting to 50% of the registration fee. All fees and fines, if any, must be paid to the host without delay.

It is the duty and responsibility of each national federation to check the validity of the riders' or drivers' certificate of qualification and whether each participant has suitable liability insurance. The host does not assume any responsibility whatsoever in this respect.

Each horse may only take part with one participant per discipline.

During the whole tournament, each horse may compete in a maximum of two disciplines with the exception of eventing and combined driving. Warm-up rounds do not count.

The following applies to all Western disciplines:

Young horses may compete in a maximum of three disciplines with one participant. Adult horses (aged 6+) may compete in a maximum of four disciplines with one participant.

Fees

The participation fee includes an all-in package covering accommodation in box stalls, hay and initial bedding (1 bale).

The following fees must be paid directly to the host by the national federations:

→ participation fee: by 15 July 2018

→ late registration fine: immediately upon submitting the late entry

Please note that all fees and fines are non-refundable.

Horses may only be accommodated in the box stalls provided by the host. Stabling horses in trailers or vans is not allowed.

Fees

Participation fee (incl. box stalls, hay and initial bedding): € 300.00 per participant

Electricity hook-up: € 50.00 (whole tournament)

Judges

The judges' team consists of internationally recognised judges.

Any complaints shall be governed by the applicable FEI rules.

Tournament rules

Entry conditions

1. Horses

The European Haflinger Championship (EUCH) is an international tournament reserved for Haflinger horses. The 2018 EUCH takes place in Stadl-Paura (Austria).

All participating countries may register up to 12 contestants per test. The host is entitled to increase individual quotas at their discretion. Competitors from all WHBSF member organisations and competitors with a personal invitation are eligible to take part. In addition to that, the WHBSF is entitled to issue wild cards.

All horses of the Haflinger breed are eligible, provided that they are registered in an official stud book and own an officially recognised certificate of lineage. Maximum percentage of Arab blood admissible:

- 1.56 % (all ages)

During the entire Championship, all participating horses must be accommodated only in the box stalls provided by the host and may not leave the venue grounds under penalty of immediate disqualification of both the horse and the rider/driver.

2. Riders and drivers

There is no division into age groups and performance classes.

The minimum age for riders is 12 years.

The minimum age for drivers and grooms is 16 years. Participants competing as drivers may not participate as grooms. Each driver may only compete in one class.

Minimum age for all trot racing drivers: 15 years

Minimum age for all gallop racing riders: 15 years

The title of "Champion" is only awarded in tournament classes with three or more contestants.

It is the duty and responsibility of each registering federation to check if the riders or drivers possess:

- a valid certificate of qualification
- valid and suitable liability insurance

The host and the WHBSF shall not assume any responsibility whatsoever in this respect.

All participants shall be liable for any damage that they or their animals may cause.

All participants take part at their own risk and with full liability.

Dogs must be kept on a lead on the entire venue grounds. Dog owners shall be liable for all damage caused by their dog.

3. Nationalities

All riders and drivers represent the country which selected and registered them.

All participants must hold a valid certificate of qualification (riding and/or driving) in the country for which they are competing.

Horses rejected during the 2018 EUCH eligibility procedure may not compete for a different country.

4. Tournament classes and age groups

In the driving, dressage and eventing disciplines, it is up to the participants to decide whether to register their six-year old horse in the Young horses class or in the Horses aged 6+ class.

Riding and driving – Young horses: 4- and 5-year-olds: one class (and, if applicable, 6-year-olds in driving, dressage and eventing)

Free jumping: 3- and 4-year-olds: one class

Riding and driving – Horses aged 6+: 6 years and older

7. General rules

As a general rule, the international standard provisions for fair play as well as correct and rule-abiding sportsmanship in equestrian sports and the protection of animals shall apply for the entire duration of the tournament. Furthermore, the health and safety regulations of the competent local health authority and veterinary office must be observed at all times, especially in reference to vaccination. Where applicable, the provisions, obligations and prohibitions laid out in the regulations of the individual FEI disciplines shall be valid for the event in question, without differentiation between ponies and horses, or any other internationally recognised regulation and/or rule book.

All equipment must be in line with the FEI regulations for ponies or horses (both permitted), where applicable, or with any other internationally recognised regulation and/or rule book.

On a general note, the applicable framework consists of these general rules and the individual FEI regulations as per discipline. Any discipline not covered by FEI regulations shall be governed by internationally recognised regulations as specified.

Some tests may be governed by former FEI regulations; any such case shall be explicitly specified in the regulations for admission.

All trot racing shall be subject to the national regulations of Austria.

If required, the host may at any time amend or modify these rules, the tournament classes and any other point not specifically mentioned.
